

Passive Solar Greenhouse - Side View

Passive Solar Greenhouse Plans

November 28, 2007

© 2007 ByExample.com

How our Passive Solar Greenhouse Works

With proper over-hangs summer sun light is prevented from entering the greenhouse, which will minimize overheating. In the winter, when the sun is lower in the sky, sun light freely enters through the South-facing windows warming the space. During the summer reflectors direct sunlight through south-facing windows providing light for growing.